Who are we?

Cocoon Journey is a full-service all women owned boutique Travel agency started by two sisters passionate about travel and adventure, our aim is to reinvent the idea of 'India' as a destination.

India has long captured the imagination of travelers all over the world with 5000 years of history, impressive forts, palaces and mix of culture and faith.

India is also home to some of the most luxurious properties in the world such as Oberoi Villas, Taj Palace and charming boutique hotels all over the map. So, come and enjoy the cultural, historical and religious richness of Incredible India. Get your cultural high – Relax, Meditate, Reflect and Engage in a Luxury setting!

What are we offering?

Our niche lies in providing risk free and safe luxury tours for foreign travelers.

We provide you carefully curated journeys like never before with a deep authentic and profound experience of a place instead of a “drive by” holiday.

Every trip is designed with your luxury and safety in mind and an 'Incredible India' experience.

How are we different?

Our tours are theme based and combine scenery, history, culture, local gastronomy and shopping all in a luxurious setting.

Thorough research ensures that we provide you with a “white glove” experience of each destination; each itinerary is personally curated to ensure you get the best care and best experience. Each trip comes with a female Chief Experience Officer responsible for ensuring your journey is unforgettable yet comfortable.
